Item 2. Educational Background and Business Experience

Born 1958

Post-Secondary Education

Ithaca College | B.S., Accounting | 1980

Recent Business Background

04/2017 – Present | Winthrop Wealth | Investment Adviser Representative

09/1997 – Present | LPL Financial, LLC | Registered Representative

Professional Designation

Mark S. Winthrop holds the professional designation of Professional Plan Consultant (“PPCTM”). The PPCTM designation is a credential awarded by the Financial Service Standards, a division of Fi360, to individuals who meet its professional, educational and ethical requirements, and demonstrate a commitment to fiduciary principles. Recipients of the PPCTM have at least three years of direct financial plan industry sales, service, and/or support experience. Training curriculum culminates in a 16-hour classroom training or web-based training. The final certification exam includes a 50-question, multiple choice, closed-book exam. PPCTM designees must agree to abide by the applicable code of ethics and complete six hours of continuing education each year on an ongoing basis. For additional information about this credential, please refer directly to the website of the issuing organization.

Item 3. Disciplinary Information

WW is required to disclose information regarding any legal or disciplinary events material to a client’s evaluation of Mark S. Winthrop. WW has no information to disclose in relation to this Item. Please refer to FINRA BrokerCheck at www.FINRA.org/brokercheck for additional information.

Item 4. Other Business Activities

WW is required to disclose information regarding any investment-related business or occupation in which Mark S. Winthrop is actively engaged.

Registered Representative of a Broker-Dealer

Mark S. Winthrop is a registered representative of LPL Financial LLC ("LPL"), an SEC registered broker-dealer and member of FINRA. In this capacity, Mark S. Winthrop may sell securities to clients and receive normal and customary compensation in the form of commissions. Clients are under no obligation to purchase or sell securities through Mark S. Winthrop on a commissionable basis. In addition, Mark S. Winthrop may receive other compensation such as mutual fund or money market 12b-1 fees and variable annuity trails.

A conflict of interest exists to the extent that Mark S. Winthrop recommends the purchase of securities where he receives commissions or other additional compensation as a result. This practice gives him an incentive to recommend investment products based on compensation received rather than on the client's needs. To address this, disclosure is made to clients at the time a brokerage account is opened through LPL. Notwithstanding the above, Mark S. Winthrop takes his responsibility very seriously and only intends to recommend that a client purchase or sell securities through him as a registered representative if he believes it is appropriate for the client. WW has procedures in place to ensure that all recommendations are made in the best interests of clients regardless of any additional compensation earned.

Dually-Registered Investment Adviser Representative

Mark S. Winthrop is dually-registered as an investment adviser representative of LPL, an SEC registered investment adviser. In this capacity, Mark S. Winthrop may offer the LPL Retirement Plan Consulting Program ("RPCP") to retirement plan sponsors and receive advisory compensation. Retirement plan sponsors are under no obligation to establish a RPCP relationship with Mark S. Winthrop. The potential for receipt of advisory compensation gives Mark S. Winthrop an incentive to recommend RPCP to retirement plan sponsors based on the compensation Mark S. Winthrop will receive rather than on client needs. To address this, disclosure is made to clients in the RPCP client agreement. In addition, as stated above, Mark S. Winthrop takes his responsibility to clients very seriously.

Licensed Insurance Agent

Mark S. Winthrop is a licensed insurance agent and, in such capacity, may recommend, on a fully-disclosed commission basis, the purchase of certain insurance products. A conflict of interest exists to the extent that Mark S. Winthrop recommends the purchase of insurance products where Mark S. Winthrop receives insurance commissions or other additional compensation. Mark S. Winthrop seeks to ensure that all recommendations are made in the best interests of clients regardless of any additional compensation earned.

Item 5. Additional Compensation

WW is required to disclose information regarding any arrangement under which Mark S. Winthrop receives an economic benefit from someone other than a client for providing investment advisory services.

Mark S. Winthrop may receive compensation from product sponsors. Such compensation may not be tied to the sales of any products. Compensation may include such items as gifts valued at less than $100 annually, an occasional dinner or ticket to a sporting event, or reimbursement in connection with educational meetings or marketing or advertising initiatives. Product sponsors may also pay for education or training events that Mark S. Winthrop may attend.

Mark S. Winthrop may also receive from LPL bonuses based on his production, awards of stock options to purchase shares of LPL's parent company, LPL Investment Holdings Inc., reimbursement of fees Mark S. Winthrop pays to LPL for items such as administrative services, and other things of value such as complimentary or reduced-cost attendance at LPL's national sales conference and top producer forums and events. These financial incentives from LPL are based on Mark S. Winthrop's overall business production. However, in some cases, the incentives are greater for assets he services in advisory programs.

Mark S. Winthrop received transition support from LPL in the form of a five-year forgivable loan that may be forgiven over time depending on the length of his tenure with LPL. The loan, which is significant, is intended to provide an incentive for him to remain as a registered representative with LPL. The proceeds of the loan are intended to be used for a variety of purposes, including but not necessarily limited to, providing working capital to assist in funding Mark S. Winthrop's business, satisfying any outstanding debts owed, offsetting account transfer fees (ACATs) payable to LPL as a result of clients transitioning to LPL's custodial platform, technology set-up fees, marketing and mailing costs, stationary and licensure transfer fees, moving expenses, office space expenses, staffing support and termination fees associated with moving accounts.

To the extent Mark S. Winthrop maintains a relationship with LPL for five years and maintains a certain amount of client assets at LPL, the loan will be forgiven by LPL. The receipt of the loan presents a conflict of interest in that Mark S. Winthrop has a financial incentive to recommend that client engage our firm and use LPL as a custodian and maintain the assets at LPL over time in order for the loans to be forgiven. However, to the extent he recommends that client establish or maintain an account with our firm and LPL, it is because he believes it is in the client's best interest to do so, based on the client's goals and objectives, benefits of an integrated platform for advisory and brokerage accounts, and other services provided by LPL. Clients are encouraged to discuss these conflicts of interest with Mark S. Winthrop before deciding to custody assets with LPL.

Item 6. Supervision

Richard C. St. Onge, Chief Compliance Officer, is generally responsible for supervising Mark S. Winthrop's advisory activities on behalf of WW. Richard C. St. Onge can be reached at the firm's main telephone number listed on the cover page of this Brochure Supplement.

WW supervises its personnel and the investments made in client accounts. WW monitors the investments recommended by Mark S. Winthrop to ensure they are suitable for the particular client and consistent with their investment needs, goals, objectives and risk tolerance, as well as any restrictions previously requested by the client. WW periodically reviews the advisory activities of Mark S. Winthrop, which may include reviewing individual client accounts and correspondence (including e-mails) sent and received by Mark S. Winthrop.

01/2016 – 05/2017 | Peak Financial Management, Inc. | Investment Adviser Representative

Professional Designations

Kenneth J. Dean holds the professional designation of Certified Public Accountant (“CPA”). CPAs are licensed and regulated by their state boards of accountancy. While state laws and regulations vary, the education, experience and testing requirements for licensure as a CPA generally include minimum college education (typically 150 credit hours with at least a baccalaureate degree and a concentration in accounting), minimum experience levels (most states require at least one year of experience providing services that involve the use of accounting, attest, compilation, management advisory, financial advisory, tax or consulting skills, all of which must be achieved under the supervision of or verification by a CPA), and successful passage of the Uniform CPA Examination. In order to maintain a CPA license, states generally require the completion of 40 hours of continuing professional education (CPE) each year (or 80 hours over a two year period or 120 hours over a three year period). Additionally, all American Institute of Certified Public Accountants (AICPA) members are required to follow a rigorous Code of Professional Conduct which requires that they act with integrity, objectivity, due care, competence, fully disclose any conflicts of interest (and obtain client consent if a conflict exists), maintain client confidentiality, disclose to the client any commission or referral fees, and serve the public interest when providing financial services. The vast majority of state boards of accountancy have adopted the AICPA’s Code of Professional Conduct within their state accountancy laws or have created their own.

Kenneth J. Dean holds the professional designation of Certified Financial Planner (“CFP®”). The CFP® certification is a financial planning credential awarded by the Certified Financial Planner Board of Standards Inc. (the “CFP Board”) to individuals who meet its education, examination, experience and ethics requirements. through LPL. Notwithstanding the above, Kenneth J. Dean takes his responsibility very seriously and only intends to recommend that a client purchase or sell securities through him as a registered representative if he believes it is appropriate for the client. WW has procedures in place to ensure that all recommendations are made in the best interests of clients regardless of any additional compensation earned.

Tax Preparation

Kenneth J. Dean, CPA also provides tax preparation services to certain individuals with which he had a prior business relationship before joining WW. Kenneth J. Dean is compensated for his services by these individuals. This activity is separate and distinct from his employment with WW and WW does not receive any portion of the tax preparation fees. Kenneth J. Dean does not solicit new clients for this business and tax preparation clients are not referred to WW. To the extent a tax preparation client inquires about WW services on an unsolicited basis, the client will be permitted to engage WW for wealth management services if desired. However, the client is under no obligation to use WW for wealth management services.

CFP® Course Instructor

Kenneth J. Dean also teaches CFP® courses, and conducts related review sessions and webinars, on behalf of Boston University. Kenneth J. Dean is compensated for this activity by the University. This activity is separate from his employment and activities with WW.

Item 5. Additional Compensation

WW is required to disclose information regarding any arrangement under which Kenneth J. Dean receives an economic benefit from someone other than a client for providing investment advisory services.

Kenneth J. Dean may receive compensation from product sponsors. Such compensation may not be tied to the sales of any products. Compensation may include such items as gifts valued at less than $100 annually, an occasional dinner or ticket to a sporting event, or reimbursement in connection with educational meetings or marketing or advertising initiatives. Product sponsors may also pay for education or training events that Kenneth J. Dean may attend.

Kenneth J. Dean may also receive from LPL bonuses based on his production, awards of stock options to purchase shares of LPL's parent company, LPL Investment Holdings Inc., reimbursement of fees Kenneth J. Dean pays to LPL for items such as administrative services, and other things of value such as complimentary or reduced-cost attendance at LPL's national sales conference and top producer forums and events. These financial incentives from LPL are based on Kenneth J. Dean's overall business production. However, in some cases, the incentives are greater for assets he services in advisory programs.

Item 6. Supervision

Richard C. St. Onge, Chief Compliance Officer, is generally responsible for supervising Kenneth J. Dean's advisory activities on behalf of WW. Richard C. St. Onge can be reached at the firm's main telephone number listed on the cover page of this Brochure Supplement.

WW supervises its personnel and the investments made in client accounts. WW monitors the investments recommended by Kenneth J. Dean to ensure they are suitable for the particular client and consistent with their investment needs, goals, objectives and risk tolerance, as well as any restrictions previously requested by the client. WW periodically reviews the advisory activities of Kenneth J. Dean, which may include reviewing individual client accounts and correspondence (including e-mails) sent and received by Kenneth J. Dean.

Professional Designation

Richard C. St. Onge holds the professional designation of Investment Adviser Certified Compliance Professional® (“IACCP®”). The NRS Investment Adviser Certified Compliance Professional® (IACCP®) designation is awarded to knowledgeable, experienced individuals who complete an instructor-led program of in-person and/or online study, pass a certifying examination, and meet its work experience, ethics and continuing education requirements. The designation signifies intermediate-level knowledge of investment adviser regulation and compliance best practices, and adherence to nationally recognized professional standards and ethical leadership. Exhaustive certification and course development, together with expert instructors and facilitators from the compliance, legal, regulatory, financial industry, and academic sectors, help ensure that individuals earning the IACCP designation have been trained, tested and certified to meet high industry professional standards.

Richard C. St. Onge holds the professional designation of Professional Plan Consultant (“PPCTM”). The PPCTM designation is a credential awarded by the Financial Service Standards, a division of Fi360, to individuals who meet its professional, educational and ethical requirements, and demonstrate a commitment to fiduciary principles. Recipients of the PPCTM have at least three years of direct financial plan industry sales, service, and/or support experience. Training curriculum culminates in a 16-hour classroom training or web-based training. The final certification exam includes a 50-question, multiple choice, closed-book exam. PPCTM designees must agree to abide by the applicable code of ethics and complete six hours of continuing education each year on an ongoing basis. For additional information about this credential, please refer directly to the website of the issuing organization.

Item 3. Disciplinary Information

WW is required to disclose information regarding any legal or disciplinary events material to a client's evaluation of Richard C. St. Onge. WW has no information to disclose in relation to this Item. Please refer to FINRA BrokerCheck at www.FINRA.org/brokercheck for additional information.

Item 4. Other Business Activities

WW is required to disclose information regarding any investment-related business or occupation in which Richard C. St. Onge is actively engaged.

Registered Representative of a Broker-Dealer

Richard C. St. Onge is a registered representative of LPL Financial LLC ("LPL"), an SEC registered broker-dealer and member of FINRA. In this capacity, Richard C. St. Onge may sell securities to clients and receive normal and customary compensation in the form of commissions. Clients are under no obligation to purchase or sell securities through Richard C. WW has procedures in place to ensure that all recommendations are made in the best interests of clients regardless of any additional compensation earned.

Dually-Registered Investment Adviser Representative

Richard C. St. Onge is dually-registered as an investment adviser representative of LPL, an SEC registered investment adviser. In this capacity, Richard C. St. Onge may offer the LPL Retirement Plan Consulting Program ("RPCP") to retirement plan sponsors and receive advisory compensation. Retirement plan sponsors are under no obligation to establish a RPCP relationship with Richard C. St. Onge. The potential for receipt of advisory compensation gives Richard C. St. Onge an incentive to recommend RPCP to retirement plan sponsors based on the compensation Richard C. St. Onge will receive rather than on client needs. To address this, disclosure is made to clients in the RPCP client agreement. In addition, as stated above, Richard C. St. Onge takes his responsibility to clients very seriously.

Licensed Insurance Agent

Richard C. St. Onge is a licensed insurance agent and, in such capacity, may recommend, on a fully-disclosed commission basis, the purchase of certain insurance products. A conflict of interest exists to the extent that Richard C. St. Onge recommends the purchase of insurance products where Richard C. St. Onge receives insurance commissions or other additional compensation. Richard C. St. Onge seeks to ensure that all recommendations are made in the best interests of clients regardless of any additional compensation earned.

Item 3. Disciplinary Information

WW is required to disclose information regarding any legal or disciplinary events material to a client’s evaluation of Sean Winthrop. WW has no information to disclose in relation to this Item. Please refer to FINRA BrokerCheck at www.FINRA.org/brokercheck for additional information.

Item 4. Othis Business Activities

WW is required to disclose information regarding any investment-related business or occupation in which Sean Winthrop is actively engaged.

Registered Representative of a Broker-Dealer

Sean Winthrop is a registered representative of LPL Financial LLC (“LPL”), an SEC registered broker-dealer and member of FINRA. In this capacity, Sean Winthrop may sell securities to clients and receive normal and customary compensation in the form of commissions. Clients are under no obligation to purchase or sell securities through Sean Winthrop on a commissionable basis. In addition, Sean Winthrop may receive othis compensation such as mutual fund or money market 12b-1 fees and variable annuity trails.

A conflict of interest exists to the extent that Sean Winthrop recommends the purchase of securities where he receives commissions or other additional compensation as a result. This practice gives him an incentive to recommend investment products based on compensation received rather than on the client's needs. To address this, disclosure is made to clients at the time a brokerage account is opened through LPL. Notwithstanding the above, Sean Winthrop takes his responsibility very seriously and only intends to recommend that a client purchase or sell securities through him as a registered representative if he believes it is appropriate for the client. WW has procedures in place to ensure that all recommendations are made in the best interests of clients regardless of any additional compensation earned.

Item 5. Additional Compensation

WW is required to disclose information regarding any arrangement under which Sean Winthrop receives an economic benefit from someone other than a client for providing investment advisory services.

Sean Winthrop may receive compensation from product sponsors. Such compensation may not be tied to the sales of any products. Compensation may include such items as gifts valued at less than $100 annually, an occasional dinner or ticket to a sporting event, or reimbursement in connection with educational meetings or marketing or advertising initiatives. Product sponsors may also pay for education or training events that Sean Winthrop may attend.

Sean Winthrop may also receive from LPL bonuses based on his production, awards of stock options to purchase shares of LPL's parent company, LPL Investment Holdings Inc., reimbursement of fees Sean Winthrop pays to LPL for items such as administrative services, and other things of value such as complimentary or reduced-cost attendance at LPL's national sales conference and top producer forums and events. These financial incentives from LPL are based on Sean Winthrop's overall business production. However, in some cases, the incentives are greater for assets he services in advisory programs.

Item 6. Supervision

Richard C. St. Onge, Chief Compliance Officer, is generally responsible for supervising Sean Winthrop's advisory activities on behalf of WW. Richard C. St. Onge can be reached at the firm's main telephone number listed on the cover page of this Brochure Supplement.

WW supervises its personnel and the investments made in client accounts. WW monitors the investments recommended by Sean Winthrop to ensure they are suitable for the particular client and consistent with their investment needs, goals, objectives and risk tolerance, as well as any restrictions previously requested by the client. WW periodically reviews the advisory activities of Sean Winthrop, which may include reviewing individual client accounts and correspondence (including e-mails) sent and received by Sean Winthrop.
